
Notice of Launch of the Paint Finishing System Business Website

Taikisha Ltd. has launched a website focused on its Paint Finishing System Business.

><https://taikisha-pf.com/jp/en/>

This Paint Finishing System Business website introduces in more detail the technologies and services related to the Paint Finishing System that the Taikisha Group has developed around the world. The website is also organized so that information, consistent on a global basis, can be viewed in a systematic manner. We strive to provide even first-time visitors with an intuitive understanding of the strengths and value provided by our Paint Finishing System Business.

Going forward, we will continue to enhance the content and make the website even easier to use.

In conjunction with the launch of the Paint Finishing System Business website, some of the technology and service pages on this website have been transferred.

If you previously bookmarked a page on our website, please update the bookmark URL to that of the new page.
